That our American rorests abound in plants which possess the most valuable medicinal virtues is abundantly attested by scores of the most eminent medical virtues and teachers. rs and teachers. Even the untuwriters and teachers. Even the unter-tored Indians had discovered the useful-ness of many native plants before the advent of the white race. This informa-tion, imparted freely to the whites, led the latter to continue investigations until to-day we have a rich assortment of most valuable American medicinal roots.

Dr. Pierce believes that our American forests abound in most valuable medicinal roots to the cult of most valuable medicinal roots to the cult of most obstinate and fatal diseases, if we would properly investigate them and in believe of this conviction, he points with prides the almost marvelous curse effected by his "featien Medical Discovery," which has proven their took the the work of the heart took and regulator, and blood deanest known to medical science. By special, of indigestion, torpid liver, functions of the heart yield to its curative action. The reason why it cures these and many other affections, is clearly shown in a little book of extracts from the standard medical works which is mailed free to any address by Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., to all sending request for the same. 0

Not less marvelous, in the unparalleled cures it is constantly making of woman's many peculiar affections, weaknesses and districtions deringments. JUSTICE BREWER'S VIEWS. The newly formed Civic Forum, an outcome of the peace conference of last year, began its public career last night as a lyceum for the discussion of national and international topics by a meeting in Carnegie Hall, New York, at which Gov. Hughes and Justice David A. Brewer, of the Supreme Court, made addresses. Gov. Hughes devoted much of his speech to amplifying the idea that the public officer must work for the people only and not to satisfy his own ambitions Justice Brewer spoke on "Public Office in Relation to Public Op aion," and surprised his audience by severe eri icism and arraignment of Presid nt

Justice Brewer not only reflected on the President openly, but by innuendo. He contrasted openly Roosevelt and Hughes. The governor escaped emberrassment by leaving early. It was said that he had no knowledge of what Judge

Brewer intended to say.

Justice Brewer spoke of mob rule, denounced lynching, and declared that the country just now was "full of e natitotional lawyers." He spoke of the sa- benches. The bodies were restored to credness of the Constitution, and passed the caskets and taken outside. When o the subject of rulers. Among other things, Justice Brewer

"It may not be generally known that waiting outside with a carriage to aid waiting outside with a carriage to aid. the convention that framed the Constitution at first prescribed a presidential term of seven years with a prohibition on re-election. In the judgment of some men, among whom I am one, there is a mistake in changing the seven-year term with prohibition on re-election to the present four-year term. In the light of history I think it would have been better to have left the presidential term seven years. If that were the provision, we the countrys has should not now have the spectacle of a strennous President playing a game of hide and seek with the American people."

LINGERING COLD.

Withstood Other Treatment But Quickly Cured by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"Last winter I caught a very severe cold which lingered for weeks," says J. Urquhart, of Zephyr, Oatario. "My cough was very dry and harsh. The local dealer recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and guaranteed it, so I gave it a trial. One small bottle of it cured me. I believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be the best I have ever used." This remedy is for sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creigh-
